

November, 14th and 15th 2024

DIRECT DEMOCRACY AND PARTICIPATORY DEMOCRACY:
WHAT CITIZEN ASPIRATIONS ?

Conference of the DEFIDEM : « The challenges of increased citizen participation in the workings of institutions: between the development of a participatory culture and the democratisation of democracies » (IRN-CNRS Project 2024-2028)

Organizers :

Laurence Morel, Jean-Gabriel Contamin, Rémi Lefebvre, Martine Legris, Julien Talpin
(CERAPS : Centre d'Etudes et de Recherches Administratives, Politiques et Sociales)

Thursday 14/11

13:45 WELCOME/INTRODUCTION by Laurence Morel (Univ. de Lille) and Marthe Fatin-Rouge Stefanini, DEFIDEM Project leader (Univ. d'Aix-Marseille)

14:00
>
14:30 KEYNOTE LECTURE
Sofie Marien (Univ. of Leuven) : « Meeting great expectations through democratic innovations? Insights into citizens' support for different citizens' involvement processes »

14:30
>
15:30 RADIOGRAPHY OF THE DEMAND FOR DIRECT/PARTICIPATORY DEMOCRATIE
Chair : Laurence Morel

Jean-Benoît Pilet (Univ. Libre de Bruxelles) : « Public support for direct and deliberative democracy among European citizens »

Mathias El Berhoumi and Antoine Herinckx (Univ. Catholique de Louvain – Saint Louis Bruxelles) « Quand la Belgique s'essaie à la démocratie directe et délibérative : quelle effectivité ? »

15:30 Coffee/tea ☕

16:00
>
17:30 EXPLANATORY VARIABLES: PRECEDENTS, MODALITIES, INSTITUTIONALIZATION
Chair : Rémi Lefebvre

Patrick Taillon (Univ. de Laval) « Quand l'échec asphyxie la demande de démocratie référendaire : le cas des référendums sur l'indépendance du Québec »

Raul Magni-Berton and Kim Graves (Institut catholique de Lille) « The devil is in the details : legal design choices of direct democracy instruments and their effect on use »

Natasa Danelciuc-Colodrovschi (Univ. d'Aix-Marseille) « The impact of the legal regulation of participatory mechanisms on the political and citizen practices: an analysis on the basis of the Eastern countries' experiences »

20:00 Dinner 🍴

Friday 15/11

9:30
>
10:00

KEYNOTE LECTURE

Julien Talpin (Univ. de Lille) « Do the French want more democracy ? A qualitative analysis of the relationship between citizens and politics »

10:00
>
12:00

DIGITAL DEMOCRACY AND PARTICIPATION

Chair : Jean-Gabriel Contamin

Kári Ragnarsson (Univ. of Island) « My neighborhood: participatory budgeting in Reykjavík »

Laura Fabiano (Univ. of Bari Aldo Moro) « Participatory democracy and digital technology: are the results inclusive or exclusive? »

11:00

Coffee/tea

Martine Legris (Univ. de Lille) « E-petition and mobilization dynamics: the importance of territorial anchoring in the fight against environmental inequalities »

12:00
>
13:00

MIXED EXPERIMENTS OF PARTICIPATORY, DIRECT AND SORTIVE DEMOCRACY

Chair : Julien Talpin

Nesa Zimmermann (Univ. de Neufchâtel) « The combination of participatory and direct democracy in Switzerland »

David Farrell and Jos Elkink (University College Dublin) « The differing impacts of knowledge of citizens' assemblies on referendum outcomes: The Irish experience »

13:00

Buffet lunch

14:30
>
15:30

NATIONAL POLITICAL CULTURES OF DIRECT AND PARTICIPATORY DEMOCRACY

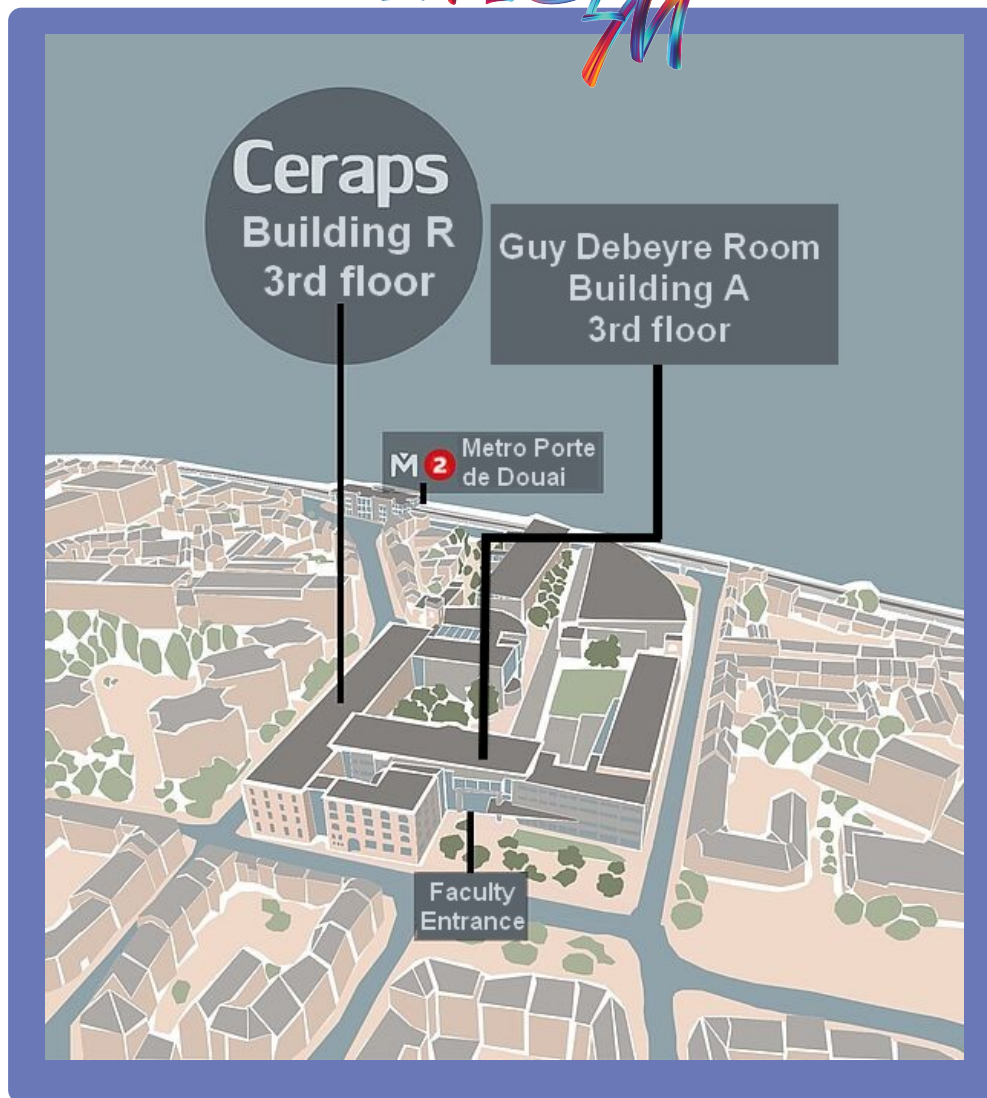

Chair : Martine Legris

Dora Pavkovic and Fran Marko Stojković (Univ. of Zagreb) « Suppressing citizens' voices: The approach of the Croatian governing elites to the instruments of the direct and participatory democracy »

Luca Sevaracz (Univ. of Szeged) « Hungarian political culture and direct democracy »

15:30
>
16:30

CONCLUSIONS (reserved for DEFIDEM members)

Address : Université de Lille, Faculté des Sciences Juridiques, Politiques et Sociales, 1 place Déliot, 59000 Lille

November, 14th and 15th 2024

For inscription and zoom link : contact laurence.morel@univ-lille.fr